

COVID-19, also known as Coronavirus has certainly presented some challenges.

This is a social and economic disruption. As we discuss this and make decisions we know that things can change tomorrow.

Golf provides an escape. Our actions as a board have been to make every effort to provide a safe environment for members and employees.

Effective immediately
the Kings Country Club
golf course and clubhouse are closed as per California
Governor Gavin Newsom's order.